FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. Town:- town before referred, reads as follows:-

Neither the law nor the circular of the Comptroller of the Currency on this subject limit a redemptions, by agencies selected for that purpose, to seamed notes. On the contrary, it is desirable that every facility consistent with safety should be allored for the withdrawnl of dirty, wor or defined notes from circulation, in order that their place may be supplied by clean and perfect notes.

The Augusta (Ga.) Constitutionalist publishes the following in relation to the Georgia State bonds:—

EXECUTIVE DIPARTHENT, MALLEDGEFILLS, Ga. Oct. 13, 1806. In conformity with an act of the General Assembly, approved 12th of March, 1866, numbered 10, it is ordered.—

First—That all bonds and coupons of the State of Georgia now due, and which were not issued in aid of the late war, wheresoever made payable, may be funded on presentation at the Treasury of the State, in mortgage bonds of the State, bearing seven per cent interest from the 1st day of July, 1866, that being the day of their date.

Becond—That all the coupons payable in New York, or in Londou, now due, and embraced in the descriptive list turnished the agency by the Treasurer, may be funded in bonds described above, on presentation at the National Bank of the Republic, New York.

Third—That all coupons funded in New York be marked paid, and returned to the Treasury, with a descriptive list of the bonds issued in funding them.

Fourth—That the Treasury endorse, or cause to be endorsed, on each bond funded, the name of the person presenting it, and that a registry of all bonds issued in the funding process be kept in the Treasurer's office.

Fifth—No interest is allowed on bonds or coupons after maturity. CHARLES J. JENKINS, Governor.

After maturity. CHARLES J. JENKINS, Governor.

TREASERS OF GRORGIA,

MILLEDGEVILLE, OCT. 13, 1806.

Holders of over due bonds and coupons of the State of Georgia are hereby notified that, in accordance with the above order, they can receive for them, on presentation at this department, new bonds of the State, dated let of July, 1866, due twenty years after date, bearing interest at seven per cent per annum, nayable semi-ann ally, in January and July, and secured by mortgage on the Western and Atlantic Railroad.

The bonds being in sums of $506 and $1,000, hold ors must present their bonds and coupons in multiples of these sums, or make up their deficiency in currency.

No provision for payment of interest after maturity of bonds or coupons having been made by the Leg islature, it cannot, of course, be allowed at this department. Persons sending bonds in under the above order are requested to write their names legibly on the margin, to guard against mistakes in their entry on the records, as ordered above.

It will be perceived by the following, from the Cincinnati Gazett, that the railroad farm mortgages in Illinois have been declared valid by a United States court:

In the Circuit Court of the United States for the Northern district of Illinois, Judge Drummond presiding, a case to test the validity of a mortgage given on a farm to accure the payment of a note given to the Racine and Mississippi Railroad Company, and by them used to raise means to assist in building the road, was recently tried before a jury. The verdict was in favor of the plaintiff, sustaining the validity of the mortgage. As this decision is the reverse of that given in the State courts, it will oreat some consternation among the farmers along the line of that road. We hope a test case will be taken to the Supreme Court of the United States, and have the vexed question settled.

ENCOUNTER OF A BRAVE WOMAN WITH INDIANS.

ENCOUNTER OF A SRAVE WOMAN WITH INDIANS.

[From the Lehama (Cal.) Observer.]

L. Hezsick, who runs a pack train between Red Binff and Hayfork of Trinity, gives the particulars of a daring exploit of a lady:—Mrs. Sarah Donelson, formerly a resident of Red Binff, is living in a log house on the trail with her children and her father. A few days are her father went out hunting stock, and Mrs. Donelson was looking after her poulity a short distance from the heuse. Suddenly live Indians made their appearance. Mrs. Donelson started for the house, and was interepted by two Indians. Throwing them from her, a third caught her by the shoulder. She knocked him down, and, reaching the house in safety, barred the door. The Indians rested one or more rifles on the window, levelled at the woman, who approached them, took down her tather's rifle and returned the fire of the Indians through the apertures or "chinks" of the log house. On attempting to cock har gun Mrs. Donelson found that the thumb of her right hand had been shot away by an Indian bullet, but using her left hand, she soon had the pleasure of knowing that her would-be murderers had retreated, whether with whole histes or not she could not tell. Muscle, courage and self-possession won a victory—one against five, and that one a woman a ghting wherein a woman has acquitted herself more creditably.
